ENRICHING LATER LIFE

Introducing

CHURCH Rose

Professional residential,
nursing, dementia
and respite care
for you or a loved one

Compassionate care and an all-embracing culture

Typical MACC Care bedroom

Church Rose is a cheerful, purpose-built home located within the Handsworth area, providing quality care for up to 48 residents.

Culture and community are at the heart of the home, which celebrates a hugely diverse and rich representation of cultural backgrounds amongst its residents, their families, support networks and staff.

Church Rose is also an integral part of the local community, welcoming visitors from charities, schools, colleges and religious speakers from a broad spectrum of spiritual backgrounds. With a busy calendar of events, there's always plenty going on – from visiting dancers, BBQs, parties, birthdays and anniversaries to celebrations of an array of holidays.

Renowned for its commitment to mental health and resident wellbeing, Church Rose also offers an activities programme designed to help people live well and enjoy life.

“I could not be more pleased with the care and compassion given both to Mum and myself... the staff have been amazingly reassuring and I know Mum is safe and well cared for.”

JR (Daughter of Resident)

“After being transferred from another nursing home, Dad seems very happy and content here. The staff are lovely and very friendly and caring.”

EC (Daughter of Resident)

Quality without compromise

Traditional and homely, Church Rose offers a comfortable environment - a true 'home from home'.

All bedrooms are en-suite to ensuring privacy and dignity for residents at all times and communal spaces, inside and out, provide the perfect spot for taking part in activities, socialising or simply relaxing and enjoying some quieter time.

Excellent facilities and amenities

Just as you'd expect from MACC Care, considerable emphasis has been placed on ensuring that every resident at Church Rose, regardless of their care needs or abilities, can be safe and well whilst enjoying life in the home.
